

OPEN PHOTO COMPETITION

The DEARBORN PUBLIC LIBRARY presents...

“Do You Hear the Call?”; an open photo competition in conjunction with The Big Read, a program of the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) in partnership with Arts Midwest. The book selected for The Big Read Dearborn, a community-wide reading initiative, is Jack London’s Call of the Wild. Therefore, the photo competition theme is environment, nature and wildlife.

JUROR: MONTE NAGLER

Photographer Monte Nagler is a noted writer, lecturer and teacher of photography. He began photographing seriously after studying with renowned photographer Ansel Adams. Nagler’s photographs have won numerous awards and are found in many private and public collections including the Detroit Institute of Arts, the University of Michigan Museum of Art, the Dayton Art Institute, the Brooklyn Museum, General Electric Corporation, and Ford, Chrysler and General Motors among others. He is a member of the esteemed Camera Craftsmen of America, one of 40 members worldwide.

ELIGIBILITY

Professional and amateur photographers, 14 years of age or older, are eligible to submit up to two works for consideration. Work should be current (within two years). A separate “Junior Photo Competition” entry form for photographers under the age of 14 is available. Call 313-943-5478.

AGREEMENT

Submission of work(s) to the juror constitutes compliance with all the conditions stated in this prospectus. The juror’s decision is final. Participating artists will be notified of the juror’s results. Accepted works will remain as placed by staff and will not be withdrawn until the close of the exhibition.
